Public Sale. — On Saturday of this week, Peter Colter will sell at the residence of David Sweger, in Carroll two... one mile North of Delville, a lot of household and kitchen furniture, one cow, shotes, young cattle and many other articles.

Brief Items.

No coal as yet has been found in the Germany mines.

Linderman a few of those new dollars, will you?

To-day (Monday,) is April-fools-day Lots of people will get fooled in the amount of money they expect to get.

Alfred Louden at one time a resident of this place was killed at Altoona last week while at his duties as a brakeman.

A perfect security against coal oil accidents is found in the Safety Valve. Applied to any lamp for a quarter. Call at Mortimer's and see it.

On Wednesday last Mr. Peter Stouffer had his hand badly mashed while setting curb stones in front of Mrs. Dunbar's property.

Mr. R. H. Minich has purchased from F. Mortimer, the brick house on the south west corner of the square, and a portion of the lot.

Samuel Brown will sell at his residence near Mansville, on Saturday, April 6th, mules, one horse, shotes, wagons, buggy and many other articles.

J. B. Hartzell has moved to the corner store, recently occupied by Mrs. Bassett, in Wright's building. Persons visiting Newport, and wanting tobacco should give him a call.

The Bloomfield Temperance Union will meet in the M. E. Church, on Saturday evening next at 7 o'clock. The members are all requested to be present. Officers will be elected for the next term.

B. McIntire, Esq., of this borough had a severe paralytic shock on Friday morning and for a time it was thought it would prove fatally. He has however got so as to be around again.

On Wednesday night last Mr. John Westfall's barn, situated at Powell's creek was burned to the ground. Two hundred bushels of wheat, four hundred bushels of oats and five head of young cattle were consumed in the flames. The building, we are informed, was insured.

On Saturday night the railroad watchthis side of Granville discovere man lying between the tracks, and after rolling him over two or three times decided he was dead, and proceeded to a near house for help; but on returning to the spot, the dead man was gone, and could not be found.—Lewistown Gazette.

On the 23rd ult., at Wisconisco during a game of base ball, a ball struck by a lad by the name of Shoemaker accidentally hit a son of Asa Blackwell, about eight years of age, (who was looking on, but was previously told to stay away, on the right temple and killed him on the

It is conceded that one of the largest spelling schools that ever was held in the Germany school house took place a few weeks ago, under the supervision of few weeks ago, under the supervision of Mr. Samuel Dum, teacher there, and although several old experienced teachers had engaged in the contest, Miss Kate M. Reeder, residing near the school house, spelled down every speller in the house. Miss Reeder has not attended school for eight or nine years, but it is believed that she spells as well now as when she was yet a poul when she was yet a pupil.

Badly Hurt .- On Saturday aweek a little son of Nathan Henderson, of Greenpark, aged about six years, climbed on the wheel of a wagon, when the horses started, throwing him so that his arm was caught between the wheel and the lock. The result was that the bones in the arm were crushed and broken in several places.

Moved.-Last Thursday Mr. R. H. Minich began to move a part of the buildings in Newport to a more pleasant location. The building moved was a meat shop which was loaded on skids attached to the front axle of a heavy wagon and which was drawn by 12 head of horses and mules. It arrived safely in town about dark and the next morning was placed in position on Mr. Minich's lot which he had just bought from F. Mortimer. Mr. C. T. Clegg and Mr. George Swartz were the partle who engineered the job.

Molly Maguires in Perry County.-Chas. Troutman, of Girty's Notch, in Buffalo twp., has write of Execution in the hands of the Sheriff against Thomas McElvy and Jesse Johnson. A few days ago the following paper was found in front of his house:

MR. TROUTMAN:-I MR. TROUTMAN:—I take the present opportunity to Inform you that I want you to lift them judgments that's against McElvy and Johnson, between this and April or you will be assassinated. Now to save your head to it at once.

from lead attend to it at once P. S.] If you can't be caught on the roads, you will be shot at your supper

Respectfully yours,

On the back of the letter was a picture of a house in flames.

Very Unjust .- A statement is published in the Carlisle Volunteer, saying that the Post Mistress at Landisburg had been arrested for embezzlement. The statement is entirely false and does gross injustice to Mrs. Connor, the Post Mistress, there not being any charge or suspicion of wrong connected with that office. The lady referred to and her friends are justly very indignant that such a charge should be published.

Where is He? - About ten days ago a chap calling himself Kauffman was accused of attempting to swindle the people of Marysville. He was arrested and the officer having Kauffman in charge took him out to McAlisterville, to get a Mr. Musser to go his bail. Mr. Musser refused to bail him, and in the evening as the officer and Kauffman were on their way to Thompsontown, to take the cars to Newport, and from there to the jail in this place, Kauffman ran away from the officer, and has not been heard of since.

Runaway Accident .- On Saturday aweek, as Mr. John Kohr, Jr., of Rye twp. and a lady were driving home from Marysville, one side of the tongue came loose from the axle while going down a hill, causing the mules to run away. At the foot of the hill was a bridge which the hind wheels missed upsetting the wagon. Mr. K. had his arm broken below the elbow and was otherwise badly injured, while the lady escaped without any broken bones, but was considerably bruised. A boy who was in the wagon stuck to it and was not hurt. The mules broke loose when the vehicle upset and ran about half a mile when they were captured.

A Tramp Fatally Injured. - Yesterday morning a little after 2 o'clock the engineer of the Philadelphia express train, eastward bound, discovered at a point about a mile west of Marysville, a man lying on the west track. The train was stopped and the man picked up and placed in the baggage car. The man, when discovered, was in a sinking condition and died before the train reached Harrrisburg. He had evidently fallen from a freight train going west, as one of his legs was cut off and he had other wounds upon his body. The remains were taken in charge by Coroner Porter and placed in the dead house. An inquest was held over the body and the jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts. The remains were placed in a coffin furnished by the county and were interred at the almshouse yesterday afternoon. There was nothing found about the man to lead to his identification. His age was apparently thirtyfive or thirty-eight years, and his height five feet eight inches. He was very

Where Has Amelia Gone,-Information is wanted of Amelia Guilford, who left Lock Haven on the 20th of December last for Edenburg, Clarion county, since which time nothing has been heard of her. She is about sixteen years old, five and a half feet high, dark complexion, black hair and black eyes, and was dressed in blue silk dress, with black sack or coat. Any information in regard to her will be gladly received by her mother, Mrs. Ellen Guilford, Lock Haven, Pa. Exchanges please copy.

Cumberland County.-We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

A few days ago, a worthy resident of a township not a thousand miles from this place, determined to follow Greely's advice and "go West." So he packed his trunk, which had a spring lock, and placed therein all his money and keys. He then closed it and bound it round with strap iron. When all was ready he discovered he had no money, that necessary articles being in the trunk, the necessary articles being in the trunk, the trunk locked and the key inside. Borrowing a screw driver, after hard work he succeeded in getting it open in time to take the train.—Newville Star.

A stranger, giving his name as Chas. Kraffenberg, was arrested in this place by Officer Wetzel on Thursday evening. During the day Officer Hays had received a telegram stating that a heavy robbery had been committed near Camp-bellstown, Lebanon county, on the Monday previous. The telegram also gave a minute discription of five men who were supposed to be the guilty parties. These men came to Carlisle and spent money very freely with fast wo-men, which aroused suspicion in the minds of the Officers that all was not right. Accordingly, on Thursday night, a descent was made on a house of ill-fame where the supposed robbers were having a good time; but Kraffenberg was the only one captured, the others having left town before a raid was made on the house. While Kraffenberger was being taken to Justice Zinn's office by Officer Wetzel, he made an attempt to escape. The accused was sent to jail to await the arrival of a Lebanon county officer. On Saturday an officer arrived here and identified the prisoner as one of the men concerned in the heavy robbery, when he was taken to Lebanon for trial. Kraffenberg had a large quantity of gold and silver in his possession when arrested. His companions in crime have not been arrested up to the present writing .- Carlisle Volunteer.

Iuniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week. A new post-office has been established at Dimmyille, in Greenwood township. John T. Dimm postmaster.

B. H. Custer has been appointed post-master East Salem; E. G. Sheaffer at Oriental, and W. B. Winey at Richfield. On Sunday morning last Rev. H. C. Shindle received thirteen persons to membership in the Lutheran church, four of whom were taken in on certificate, and the late meeting held in that church.—Port Royal Times. On Saturday last a young son of James Carter, in Spruce Hill township, while fishing in the Tuscarora creek got the hook fastened in his lower lip. Dr. Brazee happened to be passing the home of Mr. C. shortly after the accident and was called in to administer surgical aid.

Sunday night was the most unpleasant night we experienced this winter. The weather was terribly cold, and the wind blew a perfect hurricane all night. About 8 o'clock in the evening a foul chimney in the house occupied by Wilber McCa-han, on Water street, look fire, and for a while the lower end of town was threatened with a fearful conflagration. threatened with a fearful conflagration. The fire blazed ten feet above the chimney and the high wind carried the sparks clear across the lots into the stables of Judge Elder and Alexander Ellis. Very providentially, however, the sparks failed to ignite the buildings, thus saving at least one-fourth the town from destruction.—Miglintown Dem. & Reg.

California Letter.

The following extract from a letter by a former resident of this place will interest some of our readers :

SACRAMENTO, March 11th, 1878.

SACRAMENTO, March 11th, 1878.

MY DEAR FATHER:—I am still at this place and enjoying usual health. A great political revolution is taking place in this State at present.

The Workingmen's party is being victorious in all the elections, and they will soon run the State, and then I am of the opinion it will be a more tolerable place for a poor man. At present corrupt corporations and Chinese slave-holders run the State in their own interest.

Rain has been so abundant this season that the levees would not hold the water in the rivers, and the great valley of the Sacramento is covered with about five feet of water. It is a sight from the dome of the Capitol, to look out upon an ocean of water as far as the eyes will carry. Many thousands have been left homeless, and their live stock all drawned.

The rains have abated and the water The rains have abated and the water is lowering, although the prospects for crops are gone for this season in this valley. Yet the rains will prove a god-send to those portions of the State which were not inundated, and the present year will be one of great prosperity.

Your affectionate Son,

JOHN W. MAGEE,
